A BILL

To amend the Agricultural Foreign Investment Disclosure Act of 1978 to strengthen oversight over foreign investment in the United States agricultural industry, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Foreign Agricultural 5 Restrictions to Maintain Local Agriculture and National 6 Defense Act of 2025” or the “FARMLAND Act of 2025”.

7 SEC. 2. AGRICULTURAL FOREIGN INVESTMENT.

8 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that—

1           (1) agriculture is vital for the national security
2           and economic prosperity of the United States and is 3           a key element of United States national power;

4           (2) agriculture of the United States feeds the 5           people of the United States and the world, and has 6           been a key contributor to advancements in tech-
7           nology and medicine;

8           (3) strategic competitors of the United States
9           have hegemonic goals to dominate the global agri-
10          culture industry and undermine the United States
11          agriculture sector through intellectual property theft
12          of seeds and other patented agriculture-related tech-
13          nologies;

14          (4) China in particular has increased agricul-
15          tural investments tenfold over the past decade and 16          continues to make investments in United States ag-
17          riculture, agribusiness, and animal processing indus-
18          tries, including by acquiring ownership of farmland
19          in the United States;

20          (5) the United States must prevent agricultural 21          espionage and theft of intellectual property con-
22          ducted by China and other foreign entities of con-23          cern (as defined in section 9 of the Agricultural For-24          eign Investment Disclosure Act of 1978 (7 U.S.C.
25          3508));

1           (6) agricultural intellectual property theft may
2           enable global competitors to undercut United States
3           producers in international seed markets;

4           (7) the Federal Government does not fully exer-
5           cise its authorized oversight over investment trans-
6           actions within the agricultural industry, causing—

7                   (A) United States farmland to be under 8                   foreign acquisition; and

9                   (B) the influence of foreign adversaries on 10                  agriculture in the United States to be an un-11                  known risk factor; and

12           (8) the Federal Government must enforce and 13           modernize existing laws to monitor and prevent ma-
14           align actions of foreign entities of concern (as defined
15           in section 9 of the Agricultural Foreign Investment 16           Disclosure Act of 1978 (7 U.S.C. 3508)) on the 17           farms and land of the United States.

18           (b) CIVIL PENALTIES.—Section 3 of the Agricultural 19           Foreign Investment Disclosure Act of 1978 (7 U.S.C.
20           3502) is amended—

21                   (1) by redesignating subsection (b) as sub-

6 SONS.—Section 3 of the Agricultural Foreign Investment
7 Disclosure Act of 1978 (7 U.S.C. 3502) (as amended by 8 subsection (b)) is amended by adding at the end the fol-
9 lowing:

10 “(e) PUBLIC DISCLOSURE OF NONCOMPLIANT PER-

12 each person who paid to the Secretary a civil penalty im-
